None of the Churton's war dead are buried in Britain. These brave men once lived in our village. They deserve a memorial which commemorates the sacrifices they made.

Biographical details of these men's lives can be found by referencing the website www.farndon.org.uk and follow the link to Churton's war dead.

The Churton War Memorial Committee (CWMC) under the patronage of Dan Snow, feel that a War Memorial should be erected in Churton. This memorial, to be feasible, should enjoy the support of village residents.

If you agree or disagree with the objectives of the CWMC, please send an email to

Helen Dearden helen@telcosensors.co.uk or John Gallagher gallagher2010@btinternet.com

Alternatively, you can complete the reply slip below and place it in Helen Dearden's letter box Quarry Cottage Stannage Lane or in mine Briarfield, Churton Road or you can post your reply slips in a box which can be found in the White Horse Inn.

All slips should be received by 18th May 2015

Many thanks, John Gallagher 01829 270617
